

Decatur Renasant Team Grows with City

May 31, 2022

DECATUR, AL – Renasant is proud to share that the Decatur banking and lending team is growing. Recently, Tim Lovelace was named Northwest Alabama Division President; Charlotte Gregory was named Decatur Market President; Melissa Nichols was named Vice President, Private Banking; and Seddrick Williams was named Assistant Vice President, Commercial Relationship Officer.

"We are happy to announce expanded roles for several of our long term team members who have been foundational in the growth and leadership of our bank and community," said Tim Lovelace, Northwest Alabama Division President. "This team will be out front in our efforts to continue expanding our Renasant tradition of service to our customers and positive impact in our market."

The lending team in Decatur brings more than 100 years of banking and lending experience to serve the community with financial expertise. With the future Decatur Gateway branch on Sixth Avenue, Renasant looks forward to continuing to grow as the city grows.

"We are excited about the changes in the Decatur and Northwest Alabama market. Renasant has an extensive financial service portfolio to meet the needs of all our customers while still being a community bank with local decision making. Our bankers are involved in organizations all over Decatur showing our commitment to serving this community," said Charlotte Gregory, Decatur Market President.

While the new Sixth Avenue location is under construction, you can visit the team at the 211 Lee Street Northeast location or visit RenasantBank.com.

ABOUT RENASANT CORPORATION:

Renasant Corporation, a 118-year-old financial services institution, is the parent of Renasant Bank. Renasant has assets of approximately $16.9 billion and operates 196 banking, mortgage, financial services and insurance offices throughout Mississippi, Tennessee, Alabama, Florida, Georgia, North Carolina and South Carolina.

For more information please visit www.renasantbank.com or Renasant's IR site at www.renasant.com