Renasant Community Foundation Announces 85 Grants For Giving Tuesday

December 2, 2025

TUPELO, Miss., Dec. 02, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- The Renasant Community Foundation today announced the gifting of 85 community grants to nonprofit organizations across the Southeast in recognition of Giving Tuesday, a day that celebrates generosity and encourages people to give back on the Tuesday after Thanksgiving. These grants reflect Renasant's continued commitment to strengthening the communities it serves by supporting organizations working in education, human services, arts and culture, community development, and more.

"Giving Tuesday reminds us of the power of collective generosity," said Kevin Chapman, Renasant President and Chief Executive Officer. "We are honored to partner with these organizations and help expand their mission-driven work in communities across our footprint."
