

Renasant Recognized as a National Top 20 Small Business Lending Bank

June 17, 2010

TUPELO, Miss., June 17 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Renasant (Nasdaq: RNST) was recently recognized on Entrepreneur Magazine's website, Entrepreneur.com, as one of the top 20 nationwide small business loan leaders. The rankings were based on the Small Business Association's most current study on small-business lending activities, Small Business and Micro Business Lending in the United States. Small business loans are defined as business loans of less than $1 million, while micro business loans are defined as business loans of less than $100,000.

"One of our major focuses at Renasant has always been serving and lending to the small business owner entrepreneur and his or her family and employees," said Renasant Chairman and CEO, E. Robinson McGraw. "We're proud to be recognized as a top 20 small business bank in the nation and our commitment to working with small business owners will continue to be a top priority for Renasant."

The report from Entrepreneur.com/bestbanks:

At some point in your entrepreneurial life, chances are you're going to need to acquire a loan in order to get your business off the ground or keep it going strong. And if that point is now, when so many banks are clamping down on credit, the task may seem near insurmountable. The good news is, while they may be fewer and farther between, there are still banks out there that believe in entrepreneurs like you-and you'll find them here in our rankings of the best small business banks.
