Renasant Announces Return of The Nest Webinar Series

BIRMINGHAM, AL – Renasant today announced the new season of the financial education webinar series, "Getting Your House In Order," sponsored by The Nest, a Renasant financial and economic empowerment program for women. The series will feature industry experts who will provide tools, resources and strategies to help micro and small businesses thrive in the post-COVID-19 economy. The series will launch Wednesday, June 23, 2021 at noon and will feature Kim Caudle Lewis, CEO of Project XYZ.

"The series will offer earnest discussion about business realities, and will highlight examples of business success" says Tracey Morant Adams, Chief Community Development and Corporate Social Responsibility Officer, Senior Executive Vice President. "Renasant is vigilant in its support of small businesses and is pleased to demonstrate such commitment to female entrepreneurs through this virtual series."

The first webinar of the season will feature a fireside chat with a business leader who strategically and successfully nurtured her company's growth from the start-up phase in Huntsville, Alabama, to an enterprise with employees in multiple U.S. locations. Project XYZ provides customer support in engineering, logistics, information technology, and alternative energy. Founder Caudle Lewis is recognized as a small business expert and advocate. In addition to leading Project XYZ to national recognition, she is the first and only African American woman to serve as board chairperson of the Huntsville-Madison Chamber of Commerce.

The premier episode will also include a panel discussion with Tracey Morant Adams, Kim Caudle Lewis, Kathy G. Mezrano (Founder of Kathy G. & Company), and Selena Rodgers Dickerson (CEO of SARCOR).

The free webisodes will be accessible via Zoom. Pre-registration is required. Each episode will feature subject-matter experts and business leaders from various disciplines. Morant Adams will host each program. Below are the details for the upcoming episodes and links to register:

- "Navigating Your Business Through a Post-Covid-19 World" - Wednesday, June 23, 2021 at 12 pm (CST) - Register here
